DESCRIPTION OF NEW IS BANK OF MALATYA
AND IS BANK ARCHIVES BUILDING IN ANKARA

[Information on graphics material is appended.]

The recently constructed Is (Business) Bank building is one of the most modern works of architecture in the city of Malatya. This structure, which was erected at a cost of 254,000 Turkish lira and which covers an area of 235 square meters, has a reinforced-concrete framework and is finished on the exterior with rose-colored limestone. This structure has all modern conveniences, including a central-heating system. The basement and ground floor are used by the bank proper, and the second floor is used as a residence for the bank director and the bank inspector.

The recently completed Archives Building of the Is Bank of Turkey is located in Ankara. This structure was erected at a cost of 275,000 Turkish lira and covers an area of 525 square meters. Construction is of reinforced concrete, with sturdy brick walls on the exterior. On each floor, there is an office and a classifying room at the end of the large archives area.
